Finance	20FIN-132	2020-07-03	On May 13, Premier Brian Pallister stated: "I'm pleased to share with you I'm taking 25 percent off my basic MLA pay, as you previously reported. That's a combination, as I said at the time, of the foregoing of any inflationary increase in MLA pay that all MLAs in the Conservative Party have shared in. So every MLA and the PC team is taking a pay reduction. I'm taking an additional pay reduction which totals then 25 percent of my base MLA pay. All my senior advisory staff are taking the same pay reduction and we are in current discussion with all political staff about how they will be addressing this issue so that they demonstrate our willingness to show solidarity." Can I get the percentage of the pay cuts to MLA's, senior political staff and the rest of the political staff? What date did they come into effect and how long will they last.	Access Denied Exceptions to Disclosure	2021-09-14

Justice	2021-279	2021-07-06	Records of how many of the 2,040 tickets that have been issued for COVID-19 infractions under the public health act have been paid by those who were ticketed. In this week's most recent enforcement update, the province says nearly $2.8 million in fines have been handed out to businesses and individuals. I'm looking to know how many of the individual fines have been paid and how many of the business fines have been paid. If possible in terms of businesses, knowing which businesses have paid and which have not would be ideal.	Access Denied - No Records	2021-08-04
